The strength of an Emma Willard education is based, in part, on an open and trusting partnership between the school and parents. To serve your daughter effectively, we ask that you inform us of any health or behavioral concerns that might require special attention or support. Specifically, if your daughter has been under the care of a physician, counselor, psychologist, or similar professional within the last five years or if she has been involved in major disciplinary action at her school during this same period, please explain below (or on a separate piece of paper attached to this application). Failure to respond fully to this question may affect your daughter's eligibility for admission or continued enrollment after admission. We appreciate your cooperation.
